Here goes nothing
Here goes everything in my simple mind Yeah, there used to be a time I'd trade it all for what you think

I'd hope for lies
I understand you'd be surprised You were bound to be No, you never were expecting anything at all from me

You're too deep, is that why you think you know me?
Is that why you read my simple mind and still don't find whatever you think you need

Fight or flight if ever we two should meet and someday might That's what really bothered me:
you never really understanding

If I obsess, you win for relentlessness
We come undone by process of your denigration
How the hell were we supposed to be?

You're too deep, is that why you think you know me?
Is that why you read my simple mind and still don't find
whatever you think you need

All the words you can have for nothing
For what it's worth, you have everything
I might have what we had in common
But, you know me...

As we live a life of ease, every one of us has all we need

You're too deep, is that why you think you know me?
Is that why you read my simple mind and still don't find
whatever you think you need
