Let the light shine on my momma
She's been worrying about me and I can tell she's tired
Walk my brother in a straight line
I know he's only sixteen but he's be playing with fire
Give my grandpa a little peace and quiet.
I can feel the years of hard work in his hands
Make my days pass just a little bit slower
I've been running so fast I've forgotten who I am

Chorus

So I go where the green grass grows
The weeds are high and the sun hangs low
Look to the sky and I say hello like it's the very first time
It doesn't matter how long's it's been,
I can talk to God like He's my best friend
Take my heart and lay it down again right there
In a dirt road prayer

He's a good guy
Looks dad in the eye
And I wonder if you made him just for me
But before I fall give me patience
Until you show me where to take this

Chorus

It's good to know I can..

Always go where the green grass grows
The weeds are high and the sun hangs low
Look to the sky and say hello.. ooh yeaahh
It doesn't matter how long it's been,
I can talk to God like He's my best friend
Take my heart and lay it down again right there
In a dirt road prayer

Yeeeahhh... in a dirt road prayer.... yeeeahh.
