you can try to keep me down you can kick sand in my face i might be makin some enemies... but no one so hateful is a friend to me

try and try and try
push your hate and fear we know our day is drawing near my o my o my countless struggles countless tears and as it turns out, we're still here to love is a right from one's birth one loves long before one knows one can how is it some love is banned like that btwn a man and a man

what gives you the right to decide which lives I can share with mine all your hate and spite can't stop me from being who I am marriage ain't always between a woman and a man

we're still here
we're still here
we're still here
we're still here
