You've punished me with imagination and fear
You've inspired me throughout all these years
Don't leave now, don't go away

The brilliant shining through one million inferior shooting star gazers
Brilliant shining star of mine shooting star gaze down
I'll see you again, somewhere beyond forever and ever

Don't leave now, don't leave now
Don't leave now, don't leave now
Don't leave now, don't leave now

Don't leave now, don't leave now
Don't leave now, don't leave now
Don't leave now, don't leave now
Don't leave now
