Never ask me how I am, couldn't give a, well dime
Walk into a room that's full
And instantly start talking about you
So deceiving, self absorbed chained to yourself, get away

All my time couldn't be enough
Need at least one extra hour a day to listen to you carry on
About how much this stinks or how much that sucks
And it's always a complete mockery of truth and life that's inside of me

Because I'm the great daylight savings man
I think the world should stop an hour for me
Yeah, I'm the great daylight savings man
And I think the world should revolve around me

I'm the great daylight savings man
I think the whole world should stop one hour for me
Yeah, I'm the great daylight savings man
And I think the world should revolve around me, yeah
Revolve around me, yeah

I keep on listening to you about you
Hearing in one ear, no process, out the other
It's hard to show you love though I try anyway
Isn't my sincerity enough for you to let me be?

I couldn't run away 'cause you'll follow me anyway
Climb trees and hide in bushes
Your voice echoes through the land
I try to tune you out but there's no way without a doubt because

I'm the great daylight savings man
I think the world should stop an hour for me
Yeah, I'm the great daylight savings man
And I think the whole world should revolve around me

I'm the great daylight savings man
I think the world should stop an hour for me
Yeah, I'm the great daylight savings man
And I think the whole world should revolve around me,
yeah
Revolve around me, yeah

Jesus help me to show them love
Help me to show her love
Help me to show him love

Jesus help me to show them love
Help me to show her love
Help me to show him love

Jesus help me to show them love
Help me to show her love
Help me to show him love

Help me to show them love
Help me to show her love
Help me to show him love

Help me to show her love
Help me to show him love
Help me to show them love

Jesus help me to show them love
Help me to show her love
Help me to show her love

Help me to show them love
Help me to show him love
Help me to show her love

Help me to show him love
Help me to show her love
Jesus help me, yeah

Oh
Help me
Help me
Help me
Help me
Help me, yeah
Help, help me
