plus
minus
zero

the world is on fire through heartless desire the tv screen ain't listening so why are you screaming?

manufactured fabrication living in hallucination

we're running out of time til we see eye to eye

i can see that i can be that i can do anything cuz i believe that

shiny systems of control seeking out your soul to hold the claim is to save us but instead they entrain us when we use our hearts to see we receive new energy the channel of the station's changing we all want this more than ever we will change the world together there's no such thing as time when we see eye to eye
