it was quiet after midnight beneath the snow fall in the city light yeah whe was just about to take flight and i was some where in another world when she told me she was leaving i thought it may be for thew season oh yeah, but life can be deceiving i didn't believe it til i saw her go life makes no promises to wait for love and when what we got ain't good enough time has a clever way of clearing up the misconceptions in our vision the lights were flashing as the doors closed she drew her heart upon the window and though i never knew the reason i didn't believe it til i saw her go

she took the midnight train and i took the bus home

i woke up and i was all alone i woke up on the couch all alone
all alone

and now i wish i had her right here to call my own it's 4 a.m. and i'm on the phone she doesn't answer and i'm all alone

in the house we used to keep in the bed we used to sleep in all i have is what you left of me

i woke up on the couch all alone

she doesn't answer and i'm all alone
all alone
