La Di Da Di Da x4
every day i pick my self up and say
"hey there world were making the sun shine" you and me together with he and she hangin' in and making the sun shine clouds may come storms may blow but after the rain look up for the rainbow then somehow what's only a whisper now turns into the music of sunshine
La Di Da Di Da x5
come one may remember the smile and say "here we go were makin the sun shine" girls and boys were makin' a joyful noise holdin' hands and makin' the sunshine shadows form skies are grey whenever your down look up to a new day then you'll see how happy the world can be as it becomes the color of sunshine
