Well I told you once let me tell you again I never ever
Wanted to be your best friend All I really wanted to do
Is get to know you All I really wanted to do is get to Know you Well I told you once let me tell you again I
Never ever wanted to be your best friend All I really
Wanted to do is get to know you All I really wanted to Do is get to know you In the biblical sense, girl. In
The biblical sense, girl. In the biblical sense, girl
In the biblical sense, girl

Samson and Delila, Adam and his wife David and his Concubine knock me outta sight Adam and Eve you know

They wore the fig leaf Now let's lose the apple and Plant the seed Well I told you once let me tell you
Again I never ever wanted to be your best friend All I Really wanted to do is get to know you. All I really Wanted to do is get to know you In the biblical sense, Girl. In the biblical sense, girl In the biblical

Sense, girl In the biblical sense, girl

I wanna get to know you on the dance floor I wanna get To know you out by the back door I wanna get to know
You in the present tense I wanna get to know you in the Biblical sense, girl In the biblical sense, girl. In
The biblical sense, girl In the biblical sense, girl

Well I told you once let me tell you again I never ever
Wanted to be your best friend All I really wanted to do
Is get to know you All I really wanted to do is get to Know you Well I told you once let me tell you again I
Never ever wanted to be your best friend All I really
Wanted to do is get to know you All I really wanted to Do is get to know you In the biblical sense, girl. In
The biblical sense, girl. In the biblical sense, girl
In the biblical sense, girl
