I could have got through anytime
Cold lonely puritan
What are you fighting for
It's not my security
It's just an old war
Not even a cold war
Don't say it in Russian
Don't say it in German
Say it in b ro ken En glis h
Say it in...

Lose your father your husband
Your mother your children
What are you fighting for
It's not my reality
It's just an old war
Not even a cold war
Don't say it in Russian
Don't say it in German
Say it in b ro ken En glis h
Say it in br ok en Eng li sh
