

Pistol Annie's "Beige"

Mama planned it all said it's pretty in the fall and the flowers would be roses and daisies

and she prayed nobody saw the weight that I put on the bride shouldn't be 4 months and 3 weeks

Daddy's pride and joy is marrying some boy and he looked afraid the preacher turned the page and I was wearing beige

Nowhere Baptist church wrinkles in his shirt no one's having a ball at the reception hall and we didn't take no honeymoon with what we've got ourselves into a quick "I do" and then back home again

was marrying some boy now everyone in this place knows I didn't wait cause I was wearing beige I was wearing beige
