2 A.M. and you hold my hand asleep under my jacket and I drive home I drive home after the show

I keep my distance, I watch my speed I use my blinker, I dim my bright lights but the police have different plans for me tonight

a law abiding citizen becomes the victim and i'm misreading traffic signs 77 in a 65
i thought it was a 70
my sleepiness is messin me up

"Step from the vehicle sir your driver's license is expired "

"I'm afraid your driver's license is expired sir"

Mom, I got another ticket
My drivers license is probably going to get suspended
