"Always Remember Me"

Two by two lovers stand
On the beach in Santa Monica
Pretty eyes, long hair,
Smells so sweet like summer in the air

Watch me as I fall
To the water calling
Watch me as I sink
To the sea and always
Remember me

Come back, back to me,
Back to where the mountains meet the sea
We'll build a house of driftwood
And keep it simple cause simple is good

Watch me as I fall
To the water calling
Watch me as I sink
To the sea and always
Remember me

Watch me as I fall
To the water calling
Watch me as I sink
To the sea and always
Remember me
