my oh my I've gone so far
now I know I'm home
salty air is on my skin but ooh I'm lost again
and you look so good and I can't forget whats slipped my mind
I'm lost again
my oh my I've gone so far I've seen this world and all my lips I've tasted love but ooh

I'm lost again
and you look so good i cant forget what slipped my mind
I'm lost again

and you look so good x2
i cant forget
what slipped my mind
I'm lost again
