In a water tower town, everybody waves
Church doors are the only thing that's open on Sundays Word travels fast, wheels turn slow Yeah workin' hard and livin' right is the only life we know

Friday night football games, sweet tea goes good with anything
Fireflies come out when the sun goes down Nobody eats till you say Amen, and everybody knows
your mama's name
You can see who loves who from miles around, in a water tower town

Well your friends a friend, and your words your word And our pick up trucks, they ain't for lookers they're made for workers Corn grows high, crime stays low

There's little towns everywhere where everybody knows

Friday night football games, sweet tea goes good with
anything
And the girls come out, when the sun goes down Nobody eats till you say Amen, and everybody knows
your mama's name
You can see who loves who from miles around, in a
water tower town

anything
Two feet quiet makes such a beautiful sound Nobody eats till you say Amen, and everybody knows
your mama's name
You can see who loves who from miles around, in a
water tower town

Yeeeahh in a water tower town
