Two at a time, they say, the best of ways to find your place. Heart was beating, thump thump speeding, faster when I saw your face.

Oo ooooooh.

Round and round it goes, and where it stops, oh no one knows. Can't predict it, but i gotta say I hope it's so...

If I look your way, you will catch my gaze. You will find a way, to my door, it's open wide in wait.

So ooooooh.

Looking into the sun, you know I'm blind as a bat. Until you tossed me that line and now I know where we're at,
oh yeah, oh yeah, yeah

So run my way, don't you even hesitate. Spring or fall, I'll be waiting through it all. Cause when I look to find what I need, there you are next to me.

Oo ooooooh.

Two at a time, they say, the best of ways to find your place. Heart was beating, thump thump speeding, faster on that day.
