I've been in an existential funk since I can't remember being free Not knowing where I came from, or what will become of me

Existence is fragile,
and I'm finding it hard not to fear the end Please hold me close to you I need you here, my friend

You see, right now this fear of living, it is scaring me to death Not knowing how I will go on with my life in such a mess

Existence is fragile,
and I'm finding it hard not to fear the end
Just hold me close to you I'm in desperate need of a friend

Not someone with all the answers, just someone to calm my heart
To show me life's worth living,

and every moment's just a start

To be there while I'm falling to help me cup my heart
To show me life's worth living,
and every moment's just a start

Oh, will you be here to help me while I fall

I need you, I need you
I need you, I need you
Hold me close
I need you, I need you
Hold me close

Existence is fragile

Will you be here?

Will you be here, my friend?
I need you here with me

Will you hold me close?
Oh, I need you here,
I need you here
