My head is spinning
My mind is reeling, from all the pressure that this life has me in
And from the fact that there seems to be no end

No I can't sleep,
'cuz my life won't let me, tonight

This demand is just like quick sand, the more I fight the more I sink
And in my sheets, oh I feel so weak
The night, it brings me to the brink

No, I can't sleep,
'cuz my life won't let me, tonight
Oh, tonight, yeah

But I have faith that all things work out for good,
Oh, for those who believe
And I will try to have hope and see the bigger plans for
me,
Oh, but for now I can't sleep

But I have faith that all things work out for good,
Oh, for those who believe
And I will try to have hope and see the bigger plans for
me,
Oh, yeah yeah yeah

Yes I have faith that all things work out for good,
Oh, for those who believe Yes I will try to have hope and see the bigger plans for
me,
the bigger plans for me, the bigger plans for me,

Oh, but for now
