We've been so busy doing life,
making sure things go right
All the while, losing track of who we are Both as one, and also apart

We need some time to reconnect
Turn some slow jams on, and remember when I'll relearn what makes you smile
Baby girl, let's just dance for a while

Oh, here we go
Let the music fill your soul
Oh, here we go

Take my hand, and let me lead
Open the window and allow the breeze to brush our skin and cool the air
You're so close that I can smell your hair

I wanna know who you are
Oh, let me press my chest up to your heart

I'll remember what makes you smile
Baby girl, let's just dance for a while

Oh, here we go
Let the music fill your soul
Oh, here we go
Let the groove take control

Remember when the only worry we had was how getting up for work wouldn't hurt so bad Staying up late, loving the night away
Nothing but me and you and the songs of Marvin Gaye

Oh, mercy, mercy me
Let's get back to who we used to be
I'll remember what makes you smile
Baby girl, let's just dance for a while

Oh, here we go
Let the music fill your soul

Oh, here we go
Let the groove take control
