Verse 1

Put your head on my shoulder, sleep in peace
I will brush away your worries with my golden wings
Let your tears flow like streams in spring
In the Garden of my Lord & King
So he knows your sorrows and fears
7 mighty angels will be singing

Chorus

In the Land of Joy and Love
Music doesn't cease to play
With the Silver Moon 7 angels dance together
I will take you there on the golden wings of love
After you leave this life behind

Verse 2

Put your head on my shoulder, dance with me
I will melt away your worries with the golden light within
Let the joy and love rush in like gusts of wind in spring
From the Garden of my Lord & King
Now he has a place inside your heart & soul
As 7 mighty angels sing this song
