They're rubbing salt in the wounds!

Tears of rage
I fall asleep again
did you believe what they told you Enough said
Enough said

Chorus
Well maybe I can't start again (start again)
What humans here are living
The shadows we are in

Blades above
And rockets in my head
the news at six is worthless
Enough said
Enough said

Chorus
maybe I can't start again (start again)
What humans here are living
The shadows we here
maybe I...I stand my ground (stand my ground)
What humans here are living
The shadows we are...fall

They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing SALT!

You want it? You're gonna get it now
You said you want it
that's for sure you're gonna get it
You said you want it
that's for sure you're gonna get it
You said you want it
that's for sure you're gonna get it

You said you want it
that's for sure you're gonna get it

Well maybe I
can't start again (start again)
What humans here are living
The shadows we are in
(they're rubbing salt in the wounds)
maybe I...I stand my ground (stand my ground)
(they're rubbing salt in the wounds)
What humans here are living
(they're rubbing salt in the wounds)

They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds
They're rubbing salt in the wounds

(Why such a sad face? You belong in this place
If you take a look around, this is your...this is your holy land
You give your helping hand, to understand the surprise, because they're rubbing salt)

(They're rubbing salt in the wounds)
(They're rubbing salt in the wounds)
(They're rubbing salt in the wounds)
