Scars
Scars
Birth and growth
Lessons learnt and stories told
Abandon all you ever knew
So wake up!
It's what you're like you're on
It's what you're getting on
Your heart in pumping
Its jumping
That's when the hammer falls
And all this wickedness
Its all for my personal gain
So put a stop to this pain
I want my friend back

Yes I will always love him
He lives inside of these scars

Scars
Scars

Scars
Scars

Freedom gained
Traveled paths
Connections made
A fallen star will rise again
So wake up!
It's what you're like you're on
It's what you're getting on
Your heart in pumping
Its jumping
That's when the hammer falls
And all this wickedness
Its all for my personal gain
So put a stop to this pain
I want my friend back

Yes I will always love him

He lives inside of these scars

Inhale, exhale
Shoot up, shoot in
Is this the way it must begin
You're family lives in pain
They hate to see you dying
The rampage he has run
The shadow he has become
Now you've been there before
I'd tried so hard, I'd walked away
I'm talking emptiness
These words you cannot hear me say
I lived my life with you and I can't watch my friend stack
He's gone away
He's falling

Yes I will always love him
He lives inside of these scars
