My face been washed away
Of the tears I cried today
But all I need is for her to stay
Though I know that all her intentions might be good
But if I catch her with another man
I wouldn't stand the pain
I know she wants someone else (Aaah ah)
I can tell it by the way she holds me
And she can see in my eyes Ive been crying (Aaah ah)
Look into my eyes and see that Im dying
Cause I know she wants someone else
Aaah ooh
Dah dah dah
Dah dah dah
I wonder if she's running through the days
Or if she is on a date
Oh no
Cause there's no message for me
But if I catch her with another man
I wouldn't stand the pain
I know she wants someone else (Aaah ah)
I can tell it by the way she holds me
I know she wants someone else (Aaah ah)
I can tell it by the way she holds me
And she can see in my eyes Ive been crying (Aaah ah)
Look into my eyes and see that Im dying
Cause I know she wants someone else
