Change me
Please rearrange me
Make me a man
I know you can if you receive me

Still standin'
In reckless abandon
I'm weather and worn
And so forlorn
I'm yours completely

Broken
Helpless and hoping

You can turn my world upside down
Fly me through the blue sky, high into the holy ground
For all the things I've loved and lost
I only wanted to be found
Come take my world and turn it upside down

Gold streets
Covered in concrete
I covered my tracks
But not the cracks in my foundation

I'll strip this
With you as my witness
I'll tear it apart
And bear my heart in revelation

Come take it
I know you won't break it
