Lately I've been dreaming about you so much Every time I close my eyes I feel your comforting touch
All the time I know I shouldn't be this in love But there's just something about you that makes me wanna trust

It's your smile, eyes, and hair
that's got me surrounded by a trance
There's nothing about you I would change
even if I had a chance I'd swim across a million seas
just to prove my love for you is real
So come on superstar, and show me how you feel

Everyday, girls scream your name while I sit at home and slowly wait I keep thinking that maybe I may just have a chance but our two worlds are so far apart and it's just too hard to face, oh

It's your smile, eyes, and hair

that's got me surrounded by a trance
There's nothing about you I would change
even if I had a chance
I'd swim across a million seas
just to prove my love for you is real
So come on superstar, and show me how you feel

You'll never know that I listen to your sweet lullaby every night
And you'll never see that the perfect girl isn't always gonna be right at your side

But it's your smile, eyes, and hair
that's got me surrounded by a trance
There's nothing about you I would change
even if I had a chance
I'd swim across a million seas
just to prove my love for you is real
So come on superstar, and show me how you feel

Superstar, my little superstar
Come and show me how you feel, superstar
