[Chorus]:

I can see her face late at night as she dances above
the water
I lost my heart some time ago
If I hurry up soon I can catch me the midnight train to Georgia
I walk that line on down that road

[Verse]:

So everything is changed, I'm talking now alone
She's packing up her bags, walking out the door Heartbreak hurts, her heart came first
But the day it came last was the day it came worse

I wanna keep her but I can't keep a secret
You can hide the shame but today she gonna see it She ain't mean a thing you're the one I wanna be with Always says she's leaving but today she's gonna mean it

You remember last time, same door walking out it
Try to tell her stop, settle down we can talk about it
She ain't hearing shit so I know I fucked up She ain't stepping on my heart, she was nice enough to walk around it

She'll be coming back, I hope she might show
I took low route, she went the high road
I think of her whenever I have my eyes closed
I can see her face when the nights come

[Chorus]:

I can see her face late at night as she dances above
the water
I lost my heart some time ago
If I hurry up soon I can catch me the midnight train to Georgia
I walk that line on down that road
So I call you when I get there

[Verse]:

She ain't picking up, I think the signal lost

And from the style I knew that I shouldn't get involved
The same tune she's just saying to a different song
She got a ticket I'm a member she just written off

You know me, I know you, take a walk with me and I show you
When you pick up and leave the pain I go through, the pain I go through Now thinkin about now isn't worth though when you finish
All the pain I feel I deserve it when I get it

I spot me a heart I'm thinking find the closest, I catch the next train
I just missed it by a moment, I should hurry up or I never be on time
Looking for that place that I know I never find, she ain't making up her mind
She made it now she gone, I ain't seeing her face 'till I see it on a song and it sounded like

[Chorus]:

I can see her face late at night as she dances above
the water
I lost my heart some time ago
If I hurry up soon I can catch me the midnight train to Georgia
I walk that line on down that road
So I call you when I get there

[Bridge]:

I can see her face late at night as she dances above
the water
If I hurry up soon i can catch me the midnight train to Georgia
It'll be alright it'll be okay now that's what they tell me but I think she's gone
She's gone for good, so I call you when I get there

[Chorus]:

I can see her face late at night as she dances above
the water
I lost my heart some time ago
If I hurry up soon I can catch me the midnight train to Georgia
I walk that line on down that road
So I call you when I get there
