Hey, I say all you think you know me
Lil homie can I live?
Can I talk my shit
Can I tell you how it is
Y'all think my life look nice Way nicer than it is
But talk's cheap
And lies are way pricier than kids who didn't know me back then
So what give you the right
To step on in and instantly just try and change my life
You causing me pain and strife
But boy it's much more than rap
Y'all criticize how I act
But boy it's much more than that
More money, more problems
That's what I've been finding out Fake people I am out Y'all just narrow minded how you expect to get anywhere in life with that mentality
Everyone who was proud of me
Lately been acting cowardly
My minds stressed
Freeze, light up that sour

Time and time you push me down
But at the time you bring me up
It's a love hate relationship
but I don't give a fuck
Cuz I'm gonna do me 100% of the time
And I got here all on my own
So I keep it going just fine
Hey I'm a self made man
Who always been open minded
And always been known for grinding
A lot on the line that's why they fuck the narrow minded critics
Who weren't there from the start
Boy I do this for my family
Cuz they all that I got

Okay it's lies and betrayal
Lies can be fatal
To an accepting person such as myself
They can be painful
Plus y'all do it for the wealth
While I'm grinding hard as hell
Rap stayed through sickness and in health
Welcome homie ring the bell
Step up in your own reality
Fallacies in the galaxies
Causing natural disasters
Predicting massive catastrophes
Even Adam and Eve took some apples from the apple tree
I guess that's why I pass the weed
And some are from the faculty says
You'll never make it you're weak
You're just another kid that's dreaming boy wake up from your sleep
I looked him right in the eye
Said read my lips when I speak
You're just an insecure fuck
Cuz those who can't do teach
And those who can't teach die
Cuz it's survival of the fittest Society says the richest has a right to keep they distance
From the lower class citizens but fuck that we are equal i could end your whole life with some bars
No sequel

Time and time you push me down
But at the time you bring me up
It's a love hate relationship
but I don't give a fuck
Cuz I'm gonna do me 100% of the time
And I got here all on my own
So I keep it going just fine
Hey I'm a self made man
Who always been open minded
And always been known for grinding
A lot on the line that's why they
fuck the narrow minded critics
Who weren't there from the start
Boy I do this for my family
Cuz they all that I got
