(Chorus)

I ain't never try to plan ahead
I'm just trying to live my life
And if you are all organized
And you try to get high
Then you ain't coming out tonight
Put your middle fingers up
put your hands in the sky
If you got your own plans
I just don't understand cause in life I just get by

I be dreading the future
Cause it's truly unpredictable
Oh you work on wall street
Bet you wake up miserable
Every parent wants a kid who lives by lives principle
My parents the same life sounds typical
I am not trying to be forgot when I die
Wake up only to work in a box with tie
I'd rather be hospitalize than say I'm not gonna rhyme Waiting for my life to transform like optimous prime cause look
You want somthin' gotta work out for it
Gettin hella tipsy so my words start slerin
Lord tell me my purpose never claimed to be perfect
Unpredictable future so I am getting hell of nervous
Nah, but please send me a sign that I'm fine
And tell me I should get back to the grind
Made my way to the front from the back of the line
And music is more than just a hobby is a passion of mine
Cause

(Chorus)

I ain't never try to plan ahead
I just try to live my life
And if you are organized
And you tryin to get high
Then you ain't coming out tonight
Put your middle fingers up

Get your hands in the sky
If you got your own plans
And you don't understand
Cause in life I just get by

music hold me while I just get by
All the things you worryin about I just let fly
You get up in the morning just put on your necktie
Just to head over to your boring job at best buy
I take nothing for granted
Cause I earn everything I own nothing ever was handed Misjudged the first glances aint afraid to take chances Have some common sense homie try and read the pamflet
you just a sheep in the herd
Followin past music gave me a reason to turn
As i breathe in the herb
And blow out the stress
Man I ain't even got a plan i just hope for the best
Heres a toast for success put your cup in the air
And at first I was afraid but there ain't nothing to fear
There ain't nothing to fear
Pops am I making you proud
Listen up I ain't just another face in the crowd
Pops am I making you proud
Listen up I ain't just another face in the crowd cause'

(Chorus)
I ain't never try to plan ahead
I just tryin to live my life
And if you are organized
And you try to get high
Then you ain't coming out tonight
Put your middle fingers up
put your hands in the sky
And if you got your own plans
And you don't understand
