Give me one chance!

I hope you'll write me soon,
I'll run away and never look back.
You'll never hear my voice in the wind!
I'm free.

Now I have to say that love is my incredible pain,
'cause something gonna happen to me
my dreams.

You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,
and now I'm really free.
I broke all the chains.

You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,
and now I'm really free.
Just give me one chance.

I believe in fate
but never think a lot about death.
I only want to stay in your heart,
your dreams.

I don't feel regret
just try to take my last but deep breath
I'm turning rain in your mind,
we'll fly.

You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,
and now I'm really free.

I broke all the chains.

You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,
and now I'm really free.
Just give me one chance.

You'll remember my face of love
I will stay in your mind and tears never feel the same!

I'll destroy the wall
which stands between my love and your blame.
The moon is in the way and I feel it's light.

Life's a game of time
I'm streaming like a man on the train.
I cannot stop my colorful dream
I decided that
You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,
and now I'm really free.
I broke all the chains.

You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,
and now I'm really free.
Just give me one chance.

You should know
my tears are only drops of rain,

You should know...
