

James Durbin

"Rococo Zephyr"

Visit "Rococo Zephyr" on MotoLyrics.com

She lay beside me like a branch from a tender willow tree

I was as still, as still as a river could be
When a rococo zephyr swept over her and me

She watched the water ripple ripple ripple light Light watched the water ripple ripple ripple she
I did some kind of dance, jaunty as a bee
I tried to look my best, a finch in wild mint vest

A fiercer force had wrenched her from where she used to be

I caught and caressed the length of her, a tender willow branch floating on Me

Well maybe this was all, was all meant to be Maybe this is all, is all that meant to be
A rococo zephyr crept up and stepped over her and me

Well I used to be sort of blind
Now I can sort of see

Visit James Durbin page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.