Oh...

There's line, there's a road that we're walkin'
Different paths to the point where they're crossin'
But each step is one step closer to you
Yeah

As the sun says goodbye in the distance
A thousand lights light the sky like they missed us
Like each one is lighting my way to you
Yeah

This love is taking me over
It's making me feel something
That I don't understand

This heart it couldn't be faster
Tonight a thousand lights
They shine, shine for us

I'm gon' fight all my best when I'm with you
Some people shine like the sun when they see you
Ain't nothing better than holding your hand
That's what I was made to do

Every turn, every time that we just might break
When we're walking the line between love and hate
I can finally tune in out, choose love love love

This love is taking me over
It's making me feel something
That I don't understand

This heart it couldn't be faster
Tonight a thousand lights
They shine, shine for us

(They shine shine)
They shine for us
(They shine shine)
They shine for us
(They shine shine)
They shine for us

This love is taking me over

This love is taking me over
It's making me feel something
That I don't understand

This heart it couldn't be faster
Tonight a thousand lights
They shine, shine for us
