verse 1:

I gotta get this money so I started dreaming big my dreams took off and I haven't landed since higher than a bitch with ambitions of being rich and my life aint getting longer so lets get this money quick man all this bullshit is enough to make me sick. trying to lead me off the path of balling and doing it big step it up and play the game gotta grind to make it rain so let the beast up out the cage rock the beats and hit the stage the fooling because im viewing with my minds eye. when the path winds staying true to what's inside not another blind guy staring at the sunshine letting time fly
so what's you motivation ladies are paper chasing gotta get it while it for the takin staying true to what I know to do in any situation the world is what I want and the world it what im taking.

Verse 2:

its never been about thew money its never been bout the fame always been about the raps always been bout the game and the same things goes for our shows you can be a witness tonight we spending all of this yes I guess we could be a success live with no stress and never let anything upset im never stressing a deal im hardly stressing whats real so whacha stressing for real only got one life and it only feels right to live it up everynight (say yeah) X3

and the only road for me seems to be to follow my dream baby girl watch me

whatever I got to do
to live how I want to bet ill go and do
cause im always goin stay true
to my self

verse 3:

lime light can be a crack pipe one hit now your addicted to the fast life give me a problem with problem solving I get off on the wrong path as quite as ofter as a turn by my homie earth is it worth revolving tried to learn the game but it wont stop evolving girl told me get it tight can place the feeling right now im only sending signals like may-day!
but maybe I see clearly if I could only get my mind right I hear everything's 20/20 looking hind sight but on the positive I've been getting the lime light so once again for the very first time ladies and gentelment i be waking with the sunsine im not new to this slick pimpin shit I made life my bitch and she respects this pimp
