I think that I'm the one who's got it all together
But I don't - and I won't make it through this storm
I think that I'm the one who knows so much better
But I don't - and I won't until I count on you

Show me what it's like to walk by faith and not by sight

Take my world apart
Hold my hand; change my heart
You're so skilled in the art
Of dismantling me

I can admit now that I don't have all of the answers
But I know the One who does and I'm covered by His blood
I can see now that I don't have the right direction
So please show me where to go and I will follow you

Show me what it's like to walk by faith and not by sight

Take my world apart

Hold my hand; change my heart
You're so skilled in the art
Of dismantling me

Guide me in your grace
Teach me all your ways
Hold me in a lover's embrace
'Til this day is done

Won't you take my world apart
Hold my hand; change my heart
You're so skilled in the art
Of dismantling me

You are potter; I am clay
Teach me to obey
Hold me in a lover's embrace
'Til this day is done; the race is run

I can't live without you
