It's another sleepless night without you there
Things didn't turn out right, time to move on Every night the tears fall from my eyes
To wash away the loneliness
Long after you're tears are dried
I'll be crying overtime

Life just ain't so cold with a lonely heart
But it's so hard to let go of this love I feel for you
For every night the tears fall from my eyes
To wash away the loneliness
Until I get you off my mind
I'll be crying overtime

And every night the tears fall from my eyes
To wash away the loneliness
Until I get you off my mind
I'll be crying

See that I'm crying
Yes, yes I'm crying baby, yeah
Can't you see that, can't you see that I need
I need you woman, I need you girl, oh baby
Come inside with me
Oh, overtime, overtime, overtime
