[Chorus:]

If you were mine I'll give up all my time
I won't play with your mind
If you were mine everything would be fine
I won't leave you behind
I got what you need, but you have to believe
You'll never be alone, nah nah nah na na
If you were mine
If only you were mine, nah nah nah na na

He never makes you smile
But always makes you cry
Pretend it's all OK
No you don't want to stay

Baby you know that he's no good and that you should
Leave right now
Get up and go
You're in control this is your show

Keep getting thoughts running through my mind
Why are you with him
you're wasting your time
Sitting on my own and
I'm thinking to myself
She's not interested she wants someone else

[Chorus:]

If you were mine I'd give up all my time
I won't play with your mind
If you were mine everything would be fine
I won't leave you behind
I got what you need, but have to believe
You'll never be alone, nah nah nah na na
If you were mine
If only you were mine, nah nah nah na na

Take you out make you laugh
Show you things you aint seen
Do anything you want

I'll treat you like a queen

I know deep down, it feels so wrong gotta be strong
Leave right now
Stand up and go
You're in control this is your show

Keep getting thoughts running through my mind
Why are you with him
Sitting on my own and
I'm thinking to myself
She's not interested she wants someone else

[Chorus:]

If you were mine I'll give up all my time
I won't play with your mind
If you were mine everything would be fine
I won't leave you behind
I got what you need, but you have to believe
You'll never be alone, nah nah nah na na
If you were mine
If only you were mine, nah nah nah na na

What I got baby he can't give
Why not be with someone you get along with Haven't seen you happy in a while
Why not be with someone who makes you smile
I don't know what to do shall I just give up
Coz I'm giving you my all still it's not enough
Walking down the road, holding hands, like it's all fine
Is it me or are you losing your mind...

[Chorus:] 2x

If you were mine I'll give up all my time
I won't play with your mind
If you were mine everything would be fine
I won't leave you behind
I got what you need, but you have to believe
You'll never be alone, nah nah nah na na
If you were mine
If only you were mine, nah nah nah na na
