Lay down your weapons, weapons for me
Lay down your weapons, weapons for me
If that means anything

Listen little man I done told you fuck the hype ting.
I done told you road life ain't what it might seem.
Where I'm from we do wrong for the right C.R.E.A.M.
But at a price can loose your life for some nice things.
No nice dreams, just fiends and sirens.
No lie you don't wanna hear the 9 scream.
These cold nights got us slippin like an ice rink.
My bro died, he got hit up like lighting.
My road dawg killing me in prison with the lifers.
Youngen listen can you vision where my mind is.
This life's sick, the ends sorta like the fire.
Friends turned snitch, I know you heard about spider.
I recommend you take a telling from me.
Cos I've been in it from the start dawg its hell in these streets.
Once your in it then your in it ain't no settling beef.
Lay your weapons fuck fed and get your money in V.

Lay down your weapons, weapons for me.
Lay down your weapons, weapons for me.
If that means anything.
Can we avoid war, search and destroy war, learn what to live for.
If that means anything.
Lay down your weapons, weapons for me.
If that means anything.

You think this life looks fun, well look a little closer.
You just might find this life isn't what you hope for.
The road sign is a lie and the proofs in a court charge.
The truth is you die or sit down no sofa.
Prison living is an image you don't know dawg.
Picture living in this prison and it's so dark.
And when you listen you hear whispers from the cold draft.
Looking in the mirror at a sinner with a broke heart.
I know it's so hard.
I hope it won't last.

I know your starved and you just wanna get your dough
fast,
But you don't wanna end up dead or stuck behind bars.
Time is of the essence and the present flies past.
When the 9 spark mothers lose their baby boy.
And die hard kids wanna play with toys.
Listen to my voice, can you hear my pain.
Before there isn't choice.

Lay down your weapons, weapons for me.
Lay down your weapons, weapons for me.
If that means anything.
Can we avoid war, search and destroy war, learn what to live for.
If that means anything.
Lay down your weapons, weapons for me.
If that means anything.
Oh if that means anything
Oh if that means anything.
Oh ayy if that means anything.
If that means anything.
