"So Not Cool"

Clouds obscure the sky
Nowhere to fly
Breathe and close your eyes
Don't say goodbye

I have tried to find a way
To shade the light, to stay awake
I will follow you into the night

Sun breaks through
I see the beast inside of you
So not cool
The heartache that you put me through

Caught between the black
Nowhere to hide
Sleep, eternal love
Time passing by

I have tried to find a way
To take your pain
To make you stay
Take my fears and have your way tonight

Sun breaks through
I see the beast inside of you
So not cool
The heartache that you put me through

How could you
Treat me like I'm something new
Pushing you
To get to what is real and true

This empty mirror
The image cold and clear

I will never stray
With you I will always stay
In this bond
Our peace will never come
As we walk
Into oblivion

Sun breaks through
I see the beast inside of you
So not cool
The heartache that you put me through

How could you
Treat me like I'm something new
Pushing you
To get to what is real and true

To get to what is real and true
