Write it all down
Before you forget
And all of the words get Tangled like a ball and thread

Pass me a pen
And a piece of inspiration
You know the moment wont slow down Capture it with sights and sounds whoa oh, spark the plug my heart's the outlet but don't get burned I won't have a cure for that

chorus
This is the time the time that I'll shine I'll
Let loose , think up a rhyme

I'll flash a smile, smile for the camera
Do a dance, in front of the windows

I'm ready for the world to see
What became of me

I've dreamt of the lights
Envisioned a stage
Wished for the moment I
Could disengage

I tripped up the steps and Made it up the stairs
And I don't plan on coming down
From this cloud of sights and sounds

Whoa oh, my right foot's pressing
On the petal
The only light I'm watching for is go

This is the time the time that I'll shine I'll
Let loose , think up a rhyme

Do a dance, in front of the windows

I'm ready for the world to see
What became of me

bigger things are coming
I can feel it in my heart
There's no way this town can
Be, my, only start

I capture like a camera
And I translate every tone
The sun is slowly rising
And I'm following it home

This is the time the time that I'll shine I'll

I'm ready for the world to see
What became of me
