You are the next on their list,
Be sure you won't be the last.
Although their faces will change
They'll always wear the same mask.

Whenever you are alone
You feel them breathe down your neck.
Be sure they will get you first
For they are one step ahead.

Lay down the lowdown!
They lay down the lowdown!
Right now!

The longing that burns inside,
Is calling you to give in.
No matter how you'll decide,
Your motions are chained to strings.

Easy to cross the divide,
Adopt your enemy's shape.
All of the dice have been thrown.
There is no way to escape.

Lay down the lowdown!
They lay down the lowdown!
They lay down the law!
