(Verse)

Now I can't feel you
'Cause I can't feel nothing at all
And I can't see you
I keep staring at the wall
And I don't dream of you
'Cause every time I did I couldn't get you out my head

(Verse)

I don't believe you
'Cause every word you're sayin is wrong
How can I leave you?
When you're already gone?
I'd like to feel you
But every time I try I lose myself inside your lie

(Bridge)

Welcome back
I can't feel
Won't stand back
I came through

(Chorus)

Are you ready?
I can't feel, I can't feel
I can't feel, I can't feel

(Verse)

No, I can't hold you
'Cause my soul is cold as ice
Have I not told you
That I'm freezing from inside?
How could I love you?
When everything that's left is just another selfish lie

(Verse)

I wanna lose you
But you keep spinning in my mind
I wanna kill you
But will your ideas stay alive?
I walk away from you

But with every little step I just go further back in time

(Bridge)

Welcome back

I can't feel

Won't stand back

I came through

(Chorus)

Are you ready?

I can't feel, I can't feel

I can't feel, I can't feel

I'm falling away to the point

I'm standing in the steps, spread my wings but I'm lost

I'm falling away from a life that I could never love

(Chorus)

Are you ready?

I can't feel, I can't feel

I can't feel, I can't feel

I can't feel, I can't feel

I can't feel, I can't feel

I can't feel, I can't feel

I can't feel, I can't feel
