sing me a song about romance, disaster, and make me
wanna listen to more.

you're covered in water and nuclear poison, but so beautiful in blood and gore.

so give me your hand, i'll bring you down.
and dig into sand i'll drop you down.
tell me what did you see by the ocean?
tell me anything you know 'bout emotion.

'cause i bet you saw nothing in someone with something.

i'll bet you saw nothing in someone with something.
tell me how is it you live this way?

read me a poem about beauty and violence and try to get me to cry.

and give me some vodka, a lighter, some ketchup and i'll recreate you in my mind.

(pre)

(chorus)

tell me anything you want, anything you feel.

i still won't care to listen.

i got my add. add.

give me my sympathy and shut the fuck up.
