I want it now. I want it now. Put on your nylon gloves.
I want you now. I want you now. Put on your nylon gloves.

Even with your tastes, even all your smells, they get me high.

What did the little bird say to the chief? He said:
"Leave me alone. I want my bones."
What did the little bird say to the chief? He said:
"Leave me alone. I've got my bones."

Now I want you now. I want you now. So put on your nylon gloves.
I'll want it now. I'll want you now. Put on your nylon gloves.

Even through your eyes, everything I do is asking why.

(Chorus)

"But my bones don't feel right anymore and nothing ever feels the same.
I don't know where I wanna live, but I know it ain't in my brain.
Somebody call me a rescue unit, somebody call my lawyer.
I need him bad. I need him bad."
