Preach to me in sermons dressed in black.
Screech to me while learning thinking back,
I've lost my faith.
Good God I've lost my faith.

Pray for me eternal life at last.
Intimately burning thinking back,
I've lost my faith.
Good Lord I've lost my faith.

Light some candles and bless me father please.
My life can't handle this cult's a tease, and
I've lost my faith.
Good Lord I've lost my faith.

Holy water never felt so pale,
Slowly coughing. I need ginger ale.
I've lost my faith.
Good God I've lost my faith.

Bless me father for you know that I sin.
Another problem's got me all but pinned, but
I've lost my faith.
Oh wow, I've lost my faith,
I guess it ran away.
