Steps Turn Into Slides,
And Slip You Back To The Start,
Walls And Bones Both Collide,
But You Won't Break.

Cause You Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said Enough For This,
You Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said.

Words Turn Into Life,
And Stitch A Frame Beyond Your Mind,
Our Heads And Minds Both Collide,
If You Can't Change.

Steps Turn Into Slides,
And Slip You Back To The Start,
Walls And Bones Both Collide,
But You Won't Break.

Cause You Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said Enough For This,
You Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said.
You've Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said Enough For This,
You Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said.
You've Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said Enough For This,
You Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said,
You've Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said Enough For This,
You've Said Enough For This Time Now,
You've Said.
You've Said.
