there was something in the way that the day broke thunder rumbled in a darkened sky wind in your hair, rain on your face fire in your eyes with your head held high i felt no pain as you walked away i felt no pain it was no surprise and i had to say that i know there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah i could see, i could see clouds coming and i knew we'd soon be treading floodwater i could see, i could see clouds breaking

and i knew we'd soon be treading floodwater there was something in the way that our hearts flowed locked in the rhythm no need to try there was something in the way that they grew cold when the rain came and our innocence died when the rain it came and we had to pay had to pay for the free ride when the rain came it came and we had to say out loud what we felt down inside and we had to say that we knew there's

no such thing as a free ride, yeah

that there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah

i could see, i could see clouds coming

i could see, i could see clouds breaking
and i knew we'd soon be treading floodwater
i could see, i could see clouds coming

i could see, i could see clouds breaking
and i knew we'd soon be treading floodwater warm, like home, warm, like summers we were warm like home, warm, like summers we had known and shared and cherished back when we used to care about each other and the feelings that we shared as hand in hand until we said there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah

there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah

there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah
there's no such thing as a free ride, yeah
i could see, i could see clouds coming

i could see, i could see clouds breaking

i could see, i could see clouds coming

i could see, i could see clouds breaking
