Forever lost, sick of it all
Throw away the rest of all that's left
Too far to fall, all hope is gone
Now the Earth is dead and desolate
All the nameless have been layed to rest

We are the forgotten (Stuck in the way)
Discarding the lost ones (Fading away)
We'll scream through the silence (Sing for the saved)
No longer the nothing

Tramatic wounds, ugly abuse
Didn't know the heart was made for that
It's love in bloom or dead in the womb
Go ahead and paint my picture black
Holding onto what I never had

We are the forgotten (Stuck in the way)
Discarding the lost ones (Fading away)
We'll scream through the silence (Sing for the saved)
No longer the nothing

I watched you build up the walls
To keep your feelings inside
Are you lonely at all?
I watched you fall apart

(Sick solo!)

We are the forgotten (Stuck in the way)
Discarding the lost ones (Fading away)
We'll scream through the silence (Sing for the saved)
No longer the nothing
No longer the nothing
