You promised me the world and I saw nothing
How could I have ever been so dumb?
Manipulate and take what you want from me
You're so original

Without love, without trust,
You've got the art of lying
It's not true, I know it's you and I'm tired of trying to believe in you, yeah
So how can you look in my eyes?
The art of lying

Through the teeth, the master of deception
Poisoned on the tip of your tongue
Guaranteed to leave me there just guessing
Oh how original

Without love, without trust,
You've got the art of lying
It's not true, I know it's you
and I'm tired of trying to believe in you, yeah
So how can you look in my eyes?
The art of lying

Yeaaaahhhhh
Yeaaaahhhhh
Oh no

Without love, without trust,
You've got the art of lying
It's not true, I know it's you
and I'm tired of trying to believe in you, yeah
So how can you look in my eyes?
The art of lying
