Is this a Judas kiss?
A gentle way of killing
Killing everything we had
Nothing's left but the aftermath of you

Is this a hidden war?
Between nights and nightmares
Erase my name from your memory
Embrace the death silently tonight

It just wasn't blue
As blue was meant to be
It just wasn't good
As good was meant to be

There's lipstick in your eyes
You've got tears on you lips
And broken flowers in your hair
Golden words are in the air
It's, oh, so hollow

It just wasn't blue
As blue was meant to be
It just wasn't good, no
As good was meant to be

Over is over
Closer is closer
Silence is screaming
Hello! Hello! Hello! Hello!

It just wasn't blue, no no no no
As blue was meant to be
It just was not good, no no no
As good was meant
To be! To be! To be! To be!
