Childhood is a time of wonder, a time of discovery
This little girl, she was no exception
She loved to sing, she loved to dance
Playing around in her neighborhood
Away from home, exploring life on her own

She's got a little secret in her mind
She doesn't wanna show you where to find
She's got a little jukebox in her head
With songs that try to make her forget

With flowers in her hair
She's running around playing with her teddy bear
And she's laughing
She takes her mothers hand
And tries to make her understand
That she doesn't wanna leave the castle she's built in the sand

She's got a little secret in her mind
She doesn't wanna show you where to find
She's got a little jukebox in her head
With songs that try to make her forget
About the scary things under her bed

She wants to know
What's hiding
What's hiding under her bed

(Instrumental)

She's got a little secret in her mind
She doesn't wanna show you where to find
She's got a little jukebox in her head
With songs that try to make her forget

She's got a little secret in her mind
She doesn't wanna show you where to find
She's got a little jukebox in her head
With songs that try to make her forget
About the scary things under her bed
