So if you ever get your personal moonwalk
Do walk alone don't frame that size
There are so very few, who pass the qualifying
Be aware of eagering knights
Have a grip on that size
Apologize for all that you realize
Have a grip on that size
Apologize for all that you realize

You're the messenger of our good old world
Out of sight
The endless trying for the well known aim
Out of sight
The well known aim & the light years
We were blind
How could we doubt that we woul
Grasp for our galaxy

So if you ever get your personal moonwalk
Do walk alone don't frame that size

There are so very few, who pass the qualifying
Be aware of eagering knights
Have a grip on that size
Apologize for all that you realize
Have a grip on that size
Apologize for all that you realize
So if you ever get your personal moonwalk
Do walk alone don't frame that size

You're the messenger of our good old world
Out of sight
The endless trying for the well known aim
Out of sight
The well known aim & the light years
We were blind
How could we endoubt that we would
Grasp for the same
We ever saw for a thousand years
Our galaxy
You're the messenger of our good old world
Out of sight
